Whole lotta shakin' goin' on— but Season's Greetings! A week ago we were sitting here with feet on desk and thinking all the business that would be done in December had been done, when a bulletin came from the Realty Board advising that if we were not still writing up deals it was our own fault and why didn't we get out and work a little? So we shifted our feet a little, being careful not to mar the top, and thumbed through a recent issue of "Esquire" where there was an article about F. D. Roosevelt and we remembered the old days of "pump priming." So a man came in to sell his house and we bought it to prime the pump. Then Dickey BRANDSMA decided to prime it a little more by putting her units up for sale and Bruce Lane sold it the next day. Now Dickey thought things were so rosy she bought one of our listings. Then a stranger came and bought another of our listings. So we found another man who didn't like his house and we bought it and he bought one from us and by the end of the week the pump was primed to the tune of $112,000 and now we're in gear again. We need LISTING.
